

SUMMER 2022

FIELD HOCKEY SUMMER CAMP

WITH FALCONS FIELD HOCKEY CLUB

Coach Mikayla Walsh of Falcons Field Hockey Club

Coach Mikayla Walsh is a D1 field hockey player and has been playing field hockey for 8 years. She is a rising sophomore at Brown University and started every game at forward for the team this past season.

Mikayla was 4-time 1st Team All League, 3-time 1st Team All County, 3-time 1st Team All North Jersey, and 2-time 1st Team All State (Group 3) in high school for Northern Highlands. She finished her first year of college field hockey with the second most points on the team with 3 goals and 5 assists. She also made the NHFCA National Academic Squad and NHFCA Scholars of Distinction for the fall of 2021.

Jennifer Eden - Assistant Coach Ramapo College Field Hockey

In 2018, Coach Eden opened Falcon FHC which has since seen tremendous growth. In 2019, Eden joined the Lady Roadrunners staff at Ramapo College as an assistant coach. This past season, 2021-2022, Coach Eden helped in leading the Lady Roadrunners to the programs' first ECAC Championship. Eden has her USA Level I and II Field Hockey Coaching Accreditation & coaches for the USA Futures Program. She is also Safe Sport Training certified as well as CPR & AED trained.

Coach Eden played field hockey for Montclair State University. Her senior year, Montclair State field hockey qualified for NCAA tournament for the first time in the program's history.

- Run by Coach Mikayla Walsh of Falcons Field Hockey Club
- Camp will build a player's fundamental skills by developing proper passing and receiving techniques, footwork, shooting styles, offensive and defensive strategies along with game strategy.
- Separate instruction will be provided for those who are new to the game and those who have playing experience. All skill levels are encouraged to play!
- For incoming K-9 or incoming HS
